Diaconate Charge

Pastor:

Today, we come to set apart Reid Cagle, Jack Marks, and Fedd Walker to serve as deacons for our church. The role of a deacon is two-fold in its purpose. First, a deacon is a servant. The Greek word for deacon means servant. A deacon must serve the Lord by being a servant for the church. When the diaconate serves communion, they are taking the roll of a servant during our worship. Secondly, the role of a deacon is one of a leader. The church has expressed confidence in Reid, Jack, and Fedd to serve as leaders. Their new role will be that of a servant-leader recognizing the church's call under God's direction.

Reid, Jack, and Fedd:

We understand the church has set us apart to serve as a deacon. We commit to accept the role of servant-leader. We will do our best to serve the Lord through our call as a deacon at Flat Springs Baptist Church.

Current Diaconate:

We welcome Reid, Jack, and Fedd to serve with us as members of the Diaconate. We promise to pray for them, encourage them, and work with them as together we serve the Lord by serving as the Diaconate of Flat Springs Baptist Church.

Congregation:

We set apart Reid, Jack and Fedd to serve our church as a deacon. We commit to pray for them and all of those who serve on our Diaconate that we may serve our Lord together as Flat Springs Baptist Church.

Sunday School – Nursing Home Ministry

The Sunday School Nursing Home Ministry will look different for the upcoming year. In place of the Sunday School classes, we are asking for volunteers to make up small ministry teams that would be willing to go twice a year. If you are interested in participating as a member of a ministry team, please sign up on the sheet in the atrium. Teams will be comprised of persons interested in participating beginning in September.
